Notes from the computer

Here we are in the middle of winter, certainly one of the worst in memory, hope everyone heeds the warnings of the weather people and stay safe, for those who want to be macho and defy these warnings, may I say that macho can get a person hurt, better to be safe and not break a bone or worse. During these bad weather events, I know that some of us are not able to get out to go to church, and I know I have said this before, but remember if you are gone from home for a day or so, Ameran won't say, ok we will adjust your gas bill, well they don't do it for the church either, so if you can when you return to church maybe we can make up lost help to your church.

Concerns

Keep our D.S. Rev. James Barnett in prayer, also our first responders in this bad weather, and our military.

Think about it: The conversation between Adam and Eve must have been difficult at times, they didn't have anybody to talk about.

Native American Meditation:

Every day is a new day. Sometimes we make mistakes, we do not need to carry these mistakes along with us. Take the lessons and leave the mistakes behind. Look forward to today. Today we can do something good, today we can have good thoughts, today we can think kind, uplifting thoughts about ourselves. Today I will think good about my Creator. Today I ask You to direct my thoughts.

Romans ch 16 v 25: Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began. v 26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith. v 27 To God only wise be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen KJV

Church bulliten blooper: The pastor will preach his farewell message, after which the choir will sing, "Break Forth Into Joy."
